

MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

Purest Support Limited is a small Home care and support service that is delivered in the Lowestoft/Suffolk area, we are committed to operating an ethical business and values people and as such is committed to ensuring that it complies with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Modern Slavery is the recruitment, movement, harbouring or receiving of children, women or men through use of force, coercion, abuse of vulnerability, deception or other means for the purpose of exploitation. This is most typically found in organisations supply chains and has been addressed by the introduction of the Modern Slavery Act in 2015, to which this statement applies.

Purest Support Limited is committed to carrying out business in a responsible and ethical manner. Purest Support Limited ensures that this is done throughout the organisation through the use of policies that are communicated to all employees and sets out our commitment to acting ethically. Purest Support Limited has a zero-tolerance approach to Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking and all our policies reflect this.

We take reasonable and practical steps to ensure that all our suppliers adhere to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and review the process and procedures annually. We will only trade with those organisations who can prove that they are compliant with the Modern Slavery Act.

This statement is made in accordance with section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes the slavery and human trafficking statement for Purest Support Limited, for the financial year ending 31st March 2023.
